Docket No: 01626-98

Dear Lieutenant [REDACTED]

This is in reference to your application for correction of your naval record pursuant to the provisions of title 10 of the United States Code, section 1552.

A three-member panel of the Board for Correction of Naval Records, sitting in executive session, considered your application on 20 April 2000. Your allegations of error and injustice were reviewed in accordance with administrative regulations and procedures applicable to the proceedings of this Board. Documentary material considered by the Board consisted of your application, together with all material submitted in support thereof, your naval record and applicable statutes, regulations and policies. In addition, the Board considered the advisory opinion furnished by the Navy Personnel Command dated 5 November 1998, a copy of which is attached.

After careful and conscientious consideration of the entire record, the Board found that the evidence submitted was insufficient to establish the existence of probable material error or injustice. In this connection, the Board substantially concurred with the comments contained in the advisory opinion. Accordingly, your application has been denied. The names and votes of the members of the panel will be furnished upon request.

It is regretted that the circumstances of your case are such that favorable action cannot be taken. You are entitled to have the Board reconsider its decision upon submission of new and material evidence or other matter not previously considered by the Board. In this regard, it is important to keep in mind that a presumption of regularity attaches to all official records.

1626-98

Consequently, when applying for a correction of an official naval record, the burden is on the applicant to demonstrate the existence of probable material error or injustice.

Sincerely,

W. DEAN PFEIFFER
Executive Director

1. Enclosure (1) is returned, recommending denial of IT [REDACTED] request for promotion to Lieutenant Commander. The 1984 Naval Reserve Lieutenant Commander Chaplain Corps Promotion Selection Board selected [REDACTED] [REDACTED] would have been promoted on 1 April 1984, however, he failed to take the required promotion physical. [REDACTED] name was removed from the promotion selection list by SECNAV authority on 24 April 1985.
2. By his own admission, IT [REDACTED] was notified in 1984 of his selection for promotion and of the requirement to submit the results of a physical examination for the promotion to take effect. On 15 June 1985, [REDACTED] had a quadrennial physical, however, his name had already been removed from the promotion selection list. Furthermore, there is no evidence [REDACTED] made any effort to communicate with either NRPC, NMPC or BUPERS Officer Promotions until January 1998.
3. There is no evidence of any administrative error. Removing an officer's name from the promotion selection list is standard procedure when the officer does not comply with the stated requirements for acceptance.
4. Recommend disapproval of IT [REDACTED] request.
